Evacuation of Siberia by U.S. Troops and Aides Under Way, But All Cannot Leave Before March 15.

VLADIVOSTOK, Jan. 27. (By the Associated Press.)—A list of American Red Cross workers captured by the Bolsheviki at Kincinskaya station has been received here. It is: Dr. W. H. Kingston. Okinhoma: Dr. J. N. Medili, Jarosa. Col.: Pharmacists W. O. Lowe. New York city, and E. H. Charette, Stockton. Cal.

News of the capture of the Red Cross men and of seven American railway engineers was received in consular advices reaching here. These did not give the date of the capture nor did they make it clear whether the Americans mad been captured by supporters of a local uprising against Admiral Kolchak or by Bolsheviki advancing from Omsk.

The advices made no mention of any miral Kolchak or by Bolsheviki advancing from Omsk.

The advices made no mention of any women Red Cross workers. However, American Consul Ray Hansen and 20 others, Red Cross workers and American members of the railway staff, are declared to have escaped and to have reached Irkutsk. The railway men, who included Col. Blunt, were members of the Stevens commission sent from America to aid in rehabilitating the trans-Siberian railway.

Prior to these advices no word had been received of Americans near Kluchinskaya, which is a station on the trans-Siberian line near Taishet, for nearly a month.

The American consular officials and Red Cross officials here are taking steps to ascertain exactly what forces made the captures and open negotiations for the Americans' release.

Americans' release.

American army authorities believe it will be March 15 before the last American soldiers and Red Cross workers are out of Siberia. Orders have been sent that all American women be hurried out of trans-Baikalia, which is in the path of the advancing Boishevik army that has moved steadily eastward along the trans-Siberian railroad and now seems to be nearing Irkutsk.

Rearguard Red Cross units are reported at Chita a city just north of the Manchurian border where the Amurvalley branch of the trans-Siberian Joins the main line, while the 27th United States infantry is at Verkhule Udinsk, west of Chita.

Soldiers of the 27th are still in possession of the armored train captured near Verkhule Udinsk on Jan. 10 from Russian troops belong to one of Gen. Semenoff's commands. Two Americans were killed in this fight which was caused by the independent action of a stationmaster, who is alleged to have been intoxicated at the time.

Reports state the Bolsheviki have reached the Mongolian frontier.

MRS. LUNN'S FUNERAL HELD AT SACRED HEART

The body of Mrs. Elizabeth Lunn, whose death occurred Sunday night at St. Joseph's hospital, rests in Calvary cemetery. Brief services were held Tuesday morning at the home, 1336 Madison avenue, followed by a requiem mass at the Sacred Heart church, where Mrs. Lunn had worshiped for many years.

Mrs. Lunn died after a brief illness in the hospital which she aided in founding more than in quarter of a century ago. She had since that time always taken an intense interest in the growth of the hospital and visited it almost weekly. She came to Memphis in 1859 as a bride. Her husband, the late William Lunn, died many years ago. She leaves a daughter, Miss Nellie Lunn, with whom she made her home, and a son, Frank Lunn, who lives in Globe, Ariz. Mrs. Lunn was board was transmitted by the secretary today to Chairman Hale of the semate naval affairs committee which is investigating the whole subject of naval awards. It supplements a list of enlisted men sent to the committee yesterday.

The list of officers showed eight distinguished service medals were awarded by the secretary on his own initiative. The recipients included Rear Admiral William S. Benson, chief of operations during the war; Rear Admiral W. L. Capps, a member of the war industries board, and Thomas A. Edison, president of the naval consulting board.
The others with the exception of that awarded to Lieut.-Commander Daniel T. Ghent, who commanded the transport Antilles when she was sunk by a submarine. Oct. 17, 1917, went to officers who directed the mine-sweeping operations in the North sea.

Of the 198 navy crosses, 90 were awarded to officers who served with the mine-sweeping forces that cleaned up the North sea barrage. This work, the secretary explained, was not completed in time to nermit consideration of suitable awards by the Knight board.
Tho remaining navy crosses went to transport commanders, submarine, de-
